Swampgatoryeah that would be cool, but do i need the crates for something?
Each crate contains a minigun (combine the crate with a crowbar to get it) which is probably the most powerful gun in the game (6-round burst of 7.62mm). The fix is supposed to do the following...

- * Wooden Crate will no longer crash the game
- * Some Item Descriptions have been fixed
- * Sniper Scope will attach to the HK11E

If you want me to send it to you, I'll need an e-mail address. Or you can get it from lockie since I already sent it to him.

Oh that's good to know; playing DL for the first time in over 12 years and had forgotten what the crate was for!
