Please post if you play MP regularly and where you are (time zone) so we can organise more games.

So far I haven't got to play MP as I don't know any players in the +9/10 GMT section of the world

Though I'll probably be crap cos of the FPS time I do, I tend to rush and get shot up in JA2 :biglaugh:

how about an Xfire group?

<http://www.xfire.com/communities/cotdq/>

You just run xfire in the background every time you play, that way people from that group can see when your online.

You can join this group (I just discovered it right now and applied) or make new one dedicated to JA2 v1.13 MP
