jars are to be filled of course - iirc you can sell human blood to betty or feed the vampire with it

it would be a running gag in the GERMAN forums - there IS a vampire in uc - as it looks you need to start search, mark II in the german forums newbies a re told about a (needless to say nonexistent) vampire-quest (you need the silverplatter for it and it only works at full moon - if you do it right every ak your merc carries is changed into a g11)

what i don't understand any one wants new mods (well uc isn't that new), and when they get a 'new' mod the demand a walkthrough when i read your posts you should have met him already - you don't do your recon carefully, sir.

there is also a vampire (thisone is part of a quest) in the ub-mod b2b (made by a german mod-comunity, they thaught a vampir-quest is a paramount objective), and in this case you should listen to the priest who tells you about the vampire (he's dangerous).

conclusion: get a few mercs, garlik, a silver cross, and some oak-nails and start a van helsing-like vampire hunt

Damn I must have missed the priest. Ive been to alot of churches and taken they're money lol but never saw anypriests. And im not asking for a walkthrough of the whole game or anything and Im definitely not "demanding" any walkthroughs I just need help with certian aspects of the game i may or may not be missing. Im not trying to be rude or anything I just need help. But I really like your mod and im having alot of fun with it. And like I always say thank you very much for your help it is very appreciated!
