Pretty sure Stealthy "Trait" isn't supposed to work the way where Hamous can literally just walk up to a pack of enemies with them caring, stab them, kill one of them AND they still don't give a fuck and just go about patrolling (I assume the trait is whats bugging Hamous out, but if you have another idea; let me know)

That's an old bug with covert ops that has already been fixed long time ago (in revision 8405 if I remember correctly).

The latest Single Click Installer can always be downloaded here. It isn't compatible with all mods because mod authors do not always update their mod to the latest release. If in doubt read the mod description for the latest compatible version.
